
STARK & KNOLL

EXPECT EXCELLENCE

Harold M. Schwarz, III

Harold “Tadd” M. Schwarz, III is an associate in Stark & Knoll’s Litigation & Employment Group.

He is a graduate of Villanova University, where he obtained a Bachelor of Arts, Honors in Philosophy, and of Case Western Reserve University School of Law. Harold was a member of the National Moot Court Team and the Jonathan M. Ault Mock Trial Team for which he was awarded the Dean Dunmore Distinguished Advocate Award and selected for membership in the Order of Barristers.

Harold has successfully represented companies of all sizes in state and federal trial and appellate courts, before administrative boards and arbitration forums, in the areas of commercial, collections, construction and employment litigation. He is admitted to practice law in the State of Ohio, the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the U.S. District Courts for the Northern and Southern Districts of Ohio, the Eastern and Western Districts of Kentucky, the Western District of Pennsylvania and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second and Sixth Circuits. Harold is a member of the American Bar Association Business Law and Litigation Sections, the Ohio State Bar Association, and the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association. He has been selected as an Ohio Super Lawyers “Rising Star” in litigation each year since 2010 - an honor extended to no more than 2.5% of top up-and-coming Ohio attorneys under the age of 40.

Harold is an active member of his community. He currently serves as the Secretary of Northview Consortium, a non-profit entity that assists in the care of disabled individuals in Summit County. From 2006 to 2009, he served on the Board of Directors of Siffrin, Inc., a non-profit corporation principally located in Stark County whose mission is to support disabled individuals. He also serves on the Board of Trustees of Ohio City Near West Development Corporation, a non-profit community development corporation that oversees and fosters residential and commercial development in Cleveland’s historic Ohio City neighborhood.
