
STARK & KNOLL

EXPECT EXCELLENCE

Jeffrey T. Knoll

Jeffrey T. Knoll is a partner and group chair in Stark & Knoll's Business Services Group.

He graduated in 1988 from the College of Engineering at Virginia Tech University and The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law with a Juris Doctor in 1991.

For nearly 20 years Jeff has focused his practice on business and corporate law, real estate, commercial leasing and lending and business succession planning. Jeff is also experienced in the areas of surrogacy, assisted conception and infertility law where he works closely with doctors and their patients to streamline the delicate process. He has been honored as an Ohio Super Lawyer in the business and corporate law area for 2011 and 2012.

He is a member of Leadership Akron's Class XXI and was elected as Vice President of the class by his peers. Jeff has volunteered and served on various boards in the greater Akron community including Big Brothers and Sisters and Greenleaf Family Center. He is also a regular volunteer at the Bridgestone World Golf Championship.

"As a practical matter, in today's legal and business environment, representation of small and mid-sized businesses differs significantly from representation of large, publicly traded companies. Realizing this fact, I have focused my practice to best meet the needs of small and mid-sized companies, providing to them quality services within the economics of their business."
