
STARK & KNOLL

EXPECT EXCELLENCE

Joel R. Aberth

Joel R. Aberth is of-counsel in Stark & Knoll's Estate Planning & Probate Group.

He graduated from The Ohio State University in 1965 and The University of Akron School of Law in 1970.

Joel has advised clients throughout Northeast Ohio on estate planning and estate administration issues for more than 35 years. Prior to joining Stark & Knoll in 2007 Joel had a successful career as a solo practitioner with emphasis in the areas of trusts and estates. Prior to establishing his law practice, Joel had several years experience with a large trust department where he worked in the areas of investment research, portfolio management and personal trust administration

Joel is a member of the Akron Bar Association where he previously served as president of the Probate Law Section. He also is a previous president and trustee of Bluecoats, Inc. He currently serves as trustee of The Boggess Foundation, The Sanders Foundation, The McKibben Foundation and The Smart Charitable Trust.

"I believe during the administration of an estate or trust the family members are just as important as the Court and the taxing authorities. I endeavor to promote full understanding and family harmony throughout the process by total communication with everyone concerned and explanation of all issues." - Joel R. Aberth
