EXPECT EXCELLENCE

John K. Krajewski

John K. Krajewski, managing partner, is a member of Stark & Knoll's Business Services Group.

He is a graduate of Niagara University, cum laude, and Case Western Reserve University with a Juris Doctor in 1985.

His practice areas include general corporate, business succession, taxation and non-profit organizations. John has over 20 years of experience during which he has counseled business owners on various issues ranging from structuring a transaction for maximum tax benefits to succession planning and transferring the business to the next generation. He is the author of "Change for the Sake of Change: An Analysis of the Final Regulations Governing Citizens or Residents of the United States Living Abroad," "The Review of Taxation of Individuals and "Preserving America's Heritage: The Rehabilitation Tax Credit," Real Estate Accounting and Taxation. He is a member of the Akron and Ohio State Bar Associations and the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Active in the community, John currently is a Member of the Board and Treasurer of the First Friday Club of Greater Akron. He also is a volunteer at St. Bernard's soup kitchen in downtown Akron and a coach for Archbishop Hoban High School's Mock Trial Team.

"Few changes are more complex or important in the life of a company and of its owners than the transition to new ownership. By bringing both legal and accounting expertise to the table, I short-circuit communication problems and speed the process to structure a solution that minimizes taxes and serves owners and other parties exceptionally well." - John K. Krajewski
