EXPECT EXCELLENCE

Michael E. George

Michael E. George is a partner in Stark & Knoll's Business Services Group.

He graduated from Miami University with a double major in Business Management and Marketing in 1992 and from The University of Akron Law School in 1995 with a Juris Doctor.

Michael has recently handled acquisition transactions in the following industries: credit card processing, restaurant, bar and hospitality, real estate brokerage, telemarketing, website design and hosting and telecommunications. He also regularly assists clients in raising capital and obtaining financing at both start-up and mature business stages and also assists clients in planning the succession of their business to future generations along with related estate planning issues. Prior to joining Stark & Knoll he was an Assistant Attorney General for the State of Ohio handling employment and real estate matters. Michael's practice areas include general corporate, mergers and acquisitions, real estate, employment, estate planning and business succession planning.

Michael serves as Treasurer for The LaRose for Ohio Senate Campaign. He also serves on the Summit County Republican Party Finance Committee. Michael is an active member of St. Hilary's Parish in Akron. He currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Akron Children's Hospital Foundation, Northern Ohio Golf Charities and The First Tee of Akron. He is the past president of the Walsh Jesuit High School Alumni Association and former member of the Board of Trustees of the school. He remains active in the school and alumni association.

In 2009, Michael was awarded with the Greater Akron Chamber's 30 for the Future Award honoring young professionals in the Greater Akron Region who are trendsetters in their industries and make an impact on the region through leadership, entrepreneurship and community service. In 2009-2010, he participated in and graduated
